

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1895. ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

UPON THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers.

Excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—62 times—the bill is $12.25. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "till for" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. W. H. Lynch informs THE LEDGER that a young man, answering the description of Charles Metcalfe the missing boy of Brookville, was at his house and was given his supper Sunday evening.

Coming.

Farmer J. C. Lewis and his talented company of comedians, in the laughing cyclone, "Si Plunkard," will positively appear at the Opera-house tomorrow evening for one night only. Don't fail to see the Yankee farmer and his fun makers. Si and his Yankee Farmer Band will announce their arrival on the day of exhibition by a grand street parade. Watch for it and enjoy the amusement the famous band parade will offer. It's funnier than a circus.

LETTER LIST.

Those Who Have Missives in the Maysville Postoffice.

Below is a list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Maysville Postoffice for the week ending January 8th, 1895:

Archdeacon, Mrs. N. Moore, Thos. Applegate, William Moran, Mrs. Maggie Coleman, Thomas Schwartz, John Dresden, Miss Etie White, Harry K. Fowler, F. E. Whaley, Miss Frankie Kibben, H. McMahon, John Lyle, Miss Nellie

One cent due on each of above.

Persons calling for these letters will please say that they are advertised.

TROS. J. CHENOWETH, Postmaster.

FOUND AT AUGUSTA.

Charles Metcalfe, Who Shot His Brother Ward at Brookville.

THE LEDGER Monday printed a full account of the shooting of Ward Metcalfe by his brother Charles at Brookville, and of the latter's strange disappearance.

Yesterday the wandering boy was found at Augusta, at the residence of his uncle, "Coley" Metcalfe.

Word was sent to his father, H. C. Metcalfe, who immediately repaired to Augusta and took him to his home.

Mr. Metcalfe has not decided what he will do with the boy, but it is reported that he will be confined in a private asylum.

The affair is indeed a very sorrowful one, and as the people connected are one of Brookville's leading families, expressions of sympathy are heard on every hand for the family.

The young man who was injured is recovering, and it is thought that in a few weeks he will be well again.

Ex County Judge Phister has moved his law office to 206 Court street.

Within the past few months unknown parties have shot and injured several of T. Anglin's valuable trotting-bred colts at Lexington.

William Alexander, who was fined $18 and costs in the Police Court some time ago for an offense committed in the county, has brought suit against the city of Maysville for a return of the fine. The suit is based on a recent decision of Judge Harbeson that the Police Judge has no jurisdiction beyond the city limits.

LEXINGTON LACONICS.

The Breckinridge-Owens Ghost Bobs Up Once More.

Another Lexington sensation which continues to grow is the case of Professor C. M. Alberti, Principal of Johnson School.

He made some statements regarding Mayor Duncan and a young woman teacher.

The School Board, learning this, called him before the Board.

Alberti signed a complete apology, in which he stated that if he had used the language attributed to him he had done so when intoxicated.

Now there is a perfect clamor for his dismissal by the friends of Colonel Breckinridge.

During the Congressional campaign Alberti was a strong Owens worker.

It is said that if Alberti is dismissed by the Board he will expose the alleged immorality of several gentlemen occupying high positions.

Byron McClelland, the wealthy turfman, is a warm supporter of Alberti, and will furnish all the money necessary to make any sort of a fight that Alberti may deem expedient.

Secret Societies at Tacoma Protest Against the Pope's Edict.

A monster meeting was held at Tacoma, Washington, under the auspices of the A. P. A., the Knights of Pythias, the Oddfellows and Sons of Temperance, to protest against the recent edict of the Pope, placing the latter three secret societies under the ban of the Catholic Church.

G. W. Vanfossen, President of the State A. P. A., made a speech of a half hour's duration, reviewing papal interference in the affairs of European countries and the United States.

G. W. Gallagher, a Congregational Minister, spoke in behalf of the Oddfellows. He declared the Order was thoroughly Christian and eminently humane in teaching and practice. He briefly reviewed its history and enumerated its charitable deeds. Why the Pope did not want the Catholics to be Oddfellows, he said, was because the Catholic Church, to exist, must confine the mental vision of its members to the narrow channels of ignorance, superstition and fear. To go into Oddfellowship broadened a man's mind, and therefore unfitted him to be a Catholic.

Rev. S. F. Rattery, a Congregational Minister, spoke briefly as a Son of Temperance. It stood the Pope well in hand to place temperance under the ban, he declared, since four-fifths of the keepers of dives, saloons and gambling joints are members of the Catholic Church. He was willing for any American to hold whatever religious views he pleased, but the Pope and the Catholic Church must keep their hands off of American institutions.

State Senator Edward Taylor, a Knight of Pythias, created much merriment by charging Mr. Vanfossen and Representative Fred Taylor, President and Secretary of the State A. P. A., with bribing the Pope to issue his edicts, so as to drive all Catholics from other societies into the A. P. A., the only society not under the ban.

The Senator said the Pope's edict had made A. P. A.'s out of the 55,000,000 Protestants and half of the 10,000,000 Catholics in the United States.

The only Catholics who upheld it were the ignorant and foreign born.

BOOMING!

SOME SEQUELS TO THE LATE REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Returning Prosperity—Factories Starting Up—Work for American Workmen.

[Before the election THE LEDGER argued that Republican success meant a restoration of confidence, the opening of American factories and workshops, the return of business to its wonted channels, profitable and steady employment for American workmen, and an era of renewed prosperity all along the line. That the hopes held out by THE LEDGER were not false ones is being fully demonstrated. Below are a few evidences of the business revival that trends on the heel of the great Republican victory.—EDITOR.]

The Morton Tinplate Company of Cambridge, O., has signed the scale and will start next Monday.

The Alabama Rolling Mill at Gate City, Ala., is being repaired, and will soon go into operation.

The furnace of the Allegheny Iron Company at Iron Gate, Va., will be blown in during the week.

In the Bessemer plant of the Bellaire Nails Works, Bellaire, O., one night recently, No. 1 turn made 65 heats, or 313 tons of steel.

Negotiations for the removal of the Waugh Steel Works of Belleville, Ill., to Alexandria, Ind., are proceeding, and will probably be closed soon.

The Armour Packing Company of Chicago has yielded to the eight-hour movement, but it has accompanied it with a reduction to eight hours pay.

The rolling mill building of the Atlanta Steel and Tinplate Company, Atlanta, Ind., is about completed. It is of iron, 80x300 feet. The company will be rolling its own black plate in a few days.

About one hundred men have been put to work in the Ensley iron ore mines at Russellville, Ala. The product of the mines is consumed by the Saulsbury furnace at Sheffield, which was blown in recently.

In spite of the considerable reduction of wages, nine big cotton mills in Fall River, Mass., were unable to pay any dividends at all to their stockholders last year, while other establishments paid less than half their former rate of dividend.

Akron, O., is to have a new industry in a cordage factory, to be started within the next few weeks by a number of capitalists of that city. Among those interested are H. C. Viele, John Rawlings, Henry Huether, Charles T. Buel and others.

The Vicksburg (Miss.) Oil Mill, which has been shut down for nearly two years, has started up again for the season. It was purchased some time ago by Lever Bros., limited, of London, who have put the plant in first class condition. Electric lights will be put in, and the mill will be run day and night to its full capacity.

The Lookout Rolling Mills at Harrison, Tenn., which were built and equipped at a cost of $100,000, has been sold under a decree of the Chancery Court for $11,000. The concern was bought by the Harriman Iron Company, of which H. S. Chamberlain of Chattanooga is President. The plant will be put in operation at once.

A contract has been let at San Antonio, Texas, by the Corpus Christi and Padre Island Harbor Company to the Youngstown Bridge Company of Ohio, for the construction of an iron trestle to extend 4,000 feet into the gulf from the island, thus making a harbor. The cost will be about $300,000. The work is to begin in February.

A party of Pullman unemployed and their families, numbering 500 persons, have gone to Alabama, where they will start a single-tax colony on the Henry George plan, near Blakely, Baldwin county. They have secured 2,000 acres of fine land on the spot where the last battle of the civil war was fought. The land lies for two and one-half miles along the Tenshaw river. Brick-making and sawmill machinery has been bought on time.

Work on the new plant of the Pittsburgh Architectural Iron Works at Canonsburg, Pa., is progressing rapidly. The main building is under roof, and the siding, which is of corrugated iron, is nearly all on, and the window frames placed in position. A good start has been made at putting the roof on the foundry, the bricklayers are setting the boilers and the stone masons are nearly through with the foundation of the engine. Employment will be given to 1,000 men.
